Email Etiquette
Tuesday, January 26th
3:00-4:00 Student Union 220
Email is the number one way we (students, professors, and administrators) communicate with each other on campus. Learn all of the necessary elements required in sending a professional, well-written, and action driven email message.

Traps of Academic Misconduct
Thursday, January 28th
3:00-4:00 HUB/Student Union
Students can fall into traps associated with academic misconduct. Discover what these traps are and how you can avoid falling into them.

Avoiding Plagiarism
Tuesday, February 2nd
3:00-4:00 HUB/Student Union
When writing research papers, a common concern is how to avoid plagiarism. What does plagiarism look like? Join us along with the Writing Center to answer this question and receive information on how to submit a college level paper.

What Does Academic Integrity Look Like?
Wednesday, February 10th
3:00-4:00 Student Union 220
Acting with integrity in academia is more than not cheating on an exam or plagiarizing a paper. Learn some fundamentals and basics to demonstrating academic integrity inside the classroom on a daily basis.

Consequences of Academic Misconduct
Wednesday, February 24th
3:00-4:00 HUB/Student Union
Acts of academic misconduct can lead to serious consequences, such as probation and suspension from the university. Learn what the consequences are if academic misconduct is committed.
Social Media Etiquette
Tuesday, March 1st
2:00-3:00 Student Union 220
Reputation, perception, and image are three key factors college students must consider when engaging in social media outlets. Learn how to establish a character consistent of integrity, civility, and respect when communicating and participating in social media.

Picture Perfect Transcript
Tuesday, March 15th
3:00-4:00 HUB/Student Union
Learn what scholarship committees, employers, student organizations, and graduate schools want to see on a college transcript. Discover the real skills, qualities, and characteristics being demanded in today’s graduate programs & workplaces.

Ethics and Values
Wednesday, March 23rd
2:00-3:00 Student Union 220
What are ethics? How do we develop a practice of ethical standards? How do we handle situations which may cause us to not act ethically? Learn how to articulate to others, your own code of ethics.

Why Students Commit Academic Misconduct
Tuesday, March 29th
3:00-4:00 HUB/Student Union
We know cheating is wrong. We know plagiarizing is wrong. So, why do we do it? Come and learn as we explore the reasons why most students commit academic misconduct.

Letters of Recommendation
Wednesday, April 6th
2:00-3:00 Student Union 220
It is very important for college students to formulate positive relationships with faculty. Professionalism is the key to establishing a great relationship with one’s professors. Learn how to appropriately ask for a letter of recommendation.

Jennifer Wright, Director
Integrity and Ethical Development
Jennifer.Wright@ucf.edu
Ferrell Commons 142
407-823-3477
http://www.ied.sdes.ucf.edu
Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Division of Student Development and Enrollment Services
University of Central Florida